Document Availability, Public Comment Period, Availability Session, and Public Meeting Announcement

Ketchikan Pulp Company Project
Ketchikan, Alaska

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation (ADEC) Invite Your Comments on the Proposed Plan for the Uplands Portion of the Ketchikan Pulp Company Project.

Proposed Plan Announced. This flyer announces availability of the Proposed Plan for the uplands unit of the Ketchikan Pulp Company Project. The Proposed Plan contains ADEC and EPA's preferred remedy for the site, and a summary of the findings from the remedial investigation. See reverse for a brief description of the Plan.

Comments due June 17. The public is encouraged to participate in the decision-making process by commenting on the Proposed Plan. The 30-day comment period runs from May 17 to June 17, 1999. During this time the agencies will be accepting written comments and hosting a formal public meeting. After considering public comments, the agencies will identify their final cleanup decisions, and their responses to comments, in the Record of Decision. Please send written comments to:

Public Meetings on Proposed Plan

Wednesday, May 26, 1999

Ted Ferry Civic Center

3:00 - 4:30 p.m: Availability Session

7:00 - 9:30 p.m: Formal Public Meeting

Public Meeting Opportunities. ADEC and EPA will host an availability session from 3:00 to 4:30 pm on Wednesday, May 26, 1999 at the Ted Ferry Civic Center. This is an opportunity for interested citizens to meet individually with agency staff, KPC representatives, and their contractors.

Also on May 26 at the Ted Ferry Civic Center, there will be a formal public meeting from 7:00 to 9:30 pm. The meeting will begin with a short presentation about the Uplands portion of the KPC Project and the Proposed Plan, followed by a question and answer period. The last portion of the meeting will be reserved for formal verbal comments. A court reporter will tape and later transcribe the entire meeting including any oral comments delivered. A written detailed response of how each comment (whether written or verbal) has been addressed will be prepared after the meeting, as a part of the Record of Decision.
